作者简介

About the Author

Uu Shuyong was born in January 1941 in Dingxi County, Hebei Province. He graduated from the Department of Foreign Languages of Nankai University, Tianjin, in 1966. He earned an MA in history from the Graduate School of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences in 1982. He has served as assistant research fellow, associate research fellow and research fellow of the Research Institute of Modern Chinese History of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences since 1982. He has served concurrently as deputy director of the Second Research Office on China's External Relations, and a responsible member of the Research Group on Hong Kong History of the Institute.

Engaged in studies of Hong Kong's history since 1983, Liu has to his credit the following major works: Hong Kong in the 19th Century (co-author); Hong Kong in the 20th Century ("Chapter on Politics") (chief editor and co-author); The Origin of the Hong Kong Question in History-Comments on Selected Materials on the British Occupation of Kowloon; Everything Is Affectionate (Selected Works of Alumni of the University of Hong Kong on China's Mainland) (chief editor) and Essays on the History of Hong Kong. His research papers include "Tsarist Russia and International Bank Consortia," "Western Influence on Modern Chinese Society-Viewed from the History of Hong Kong." "Hong Kong and the Revolution 1911," "The Hong Kong Region Before the Opium Wars," "A Study of the History of the Kowloon Peninsula, the Kowloon Sub-district and Kowloon City." "The Whole Story About the Question of Kowloon City," "The New Program and Government Administration and Hong Kong" and "British Policies Toward Hong Kong and China's Attitude. 1948-1952."
