章节摘录

It is obvious that it is nothing to do with success. For Sir Henry Stewart was certainly successful. It is twenty years ago since he came down to our village from London , and bought a couple of old cottages , which he had knocked into one. He used his house as weekend refuge. He was a barrister. And the village followed his brilliant career with something almost amounting to paternal pride. I remember some ten years ago when he was made a King's Counsel , Amos and I , seeing him get off the London train , went to congratulate him. We grinned with pleasure; he merely looked as miserable as though he'd received a penal sentence. It was the same when he was knighted"; he never smiled a bit , he didn't even bother to celebrate with a round of drinks at the "Blue Fox". He took his success as a child does his medicine. And not one of his achievements brought even a ghost of a smile to his tired eyes. I asked him one day , soon after he'd retired to potter about his garden , what was like to achieve all one's ambitions. He looked down at his roses and went on watering them. Then he said : "The only value in achieving one's ambition is that you then realize that they are not worth achieving." Quickly he moved the conversation on to a more practical level , and within a moment we were back to a safe discussion on the weather. That was two years ago.

编辑推荐

勤奋工作吧，就像你从来不需要钱；尽情去爱吧，就像你从来没受过伤；纵情跳舞吧，就像没有人在观望。

幸福是什么？

你是不是也像我一样常常问自己。

幸福其实很简单，幸福是一种纯然的感觉，是寒冷时披上肩头的衣裳，是干渴时放到手边的清茶，是接到牵挂之人的电话，是欲将赠出的鲜花。

你在乎幸福的定义吗？

不，我在乎的只是幸福的感觉。
