前言

备考雅思口语考试，真题的重要性不言而喻。

只有通过真题训练，考生才能够了解雅思口语考试的重要信息，如话题范围、题目难度等。

除了测试自己的水平，真题训练更重要的目的是帮助考生“望一叶而知秋”，探索雅思考题的设计原理、考查要点等。

本书的目的就是帮助考生通过真题场景的练习举一反三，掌握出题规律、题型特点以及解题技巧，有的放矢地进行复习，取得好成绩。

本书的特点： 1.题目全部来源于机经题库 雅思口语考试出题最显著的特点就是考题重复使用。

感谢无数考生在考试后的考题回忆、经验分享，使得更多的考生可以在考试前窥得些许考试的“庐山真面目”。

虽然这些回忆不尽详尽和准确，但为我们把握考试的结构和出题规律提供了珍贵的资料。

本书的试题完全按照机经的场景和考点汇编，最大限度地保证了与雅思真题在文章难度、题目难度上的一致。

2.按照话题编写，便于索引和复习 雅思口语考试的另一特点是话题范围相对固定。

对于复习时间有限的考生而言，熟悉这些频繁出现的话题并有所准备，能起到立竿见影的效果。

本书按照口语考试的三个阶段总结了具体的问题和卡片内容，涵盖了历年雅思口语考试的内容。

3.更详尽的口语词汇、句型总结 有了具体的真题回忆，接下来的一步就是有的放矢地准备思路、词汇和句型了。

针对考生“无话可说”、“人云亦云”，甚至随口“胡说”的问题，本书根据问题给出了范例回答、高分例句和高频词汇，希望最大限度地帮助考生在思路上有所突破，语言上准确流利，语法上精益求精。

这些句型和答案都是在口语交流中非常地道的表达，适当的背诵和记忆对于考试会大有裨益。

在多年的雅思教学中，作者最大的愿望是不仅帮助考生顺利通过雅思考试，早日实现留学梦想，更重要的是，帮助考生培养对英语学习的真正兴趣，熟练掌握并运用这门语言，为自己打开一扇新的窗口。

章节摘录

(2) Do you think that daughters are always more similar to mothers than to male relatives? - Yes, I think so. Young girls watch their mothers, seeing how to dress, how to cook and how to interact with men. Their future behaviors would be more similar to their mothers than to male relatives. - Well, I don't think so, at least not always. Although daughters are indeed similar to their mothers in such things as cooking or doing housework, they are more similar to their fathers in personalities. I think fathers usually exert greater influence on kids in the development of personality.

(3) What about sons and fathers? - Yes, I think so. It seems that most boys start "rejecting" their mothers early on in life as part of growing up, so it's hard for moms to be close with them. On the contrary, they prefer to stay with their fathers and do some so-called manly activities. As a result, sons are more similar to their fathers in behaviors and hobbies.

(4) In terms of personality, are people more influenced by their family or by their friends? In what ways? To my mind, people are definitely more influenced by their family in respect of personality. Family is where one starts. It shapes one's personality more than friends or other people. If children live with acceptance, they learn to find love in the world. However, if children live with hostility, they learn to fight. I believe it's the family that influences people's personality more. The family instructs children and gives guidance about personal values and social behavior. Children learn at home about respecting and caring for others and taking responsibility, which feeds into their relationships at school, on the sports field, at work and, eventually, into their own families as adults. - I think people's personality is mainly determined by their genes. In this sense, family has obviously greater influence on one's personality. Friends might influence one's ideas about certain issues, but they cannot have vital impact on one's personality.

(5) What are the changes in family structure in China recently? - The biggest difference, I suppose, lies in the family size. Today's families are getting smaller and smaller. There are fewer families with three generations living under the same roof and young people move out at an earlier age. DINK families are not uncommon in big cities. Women haven't been confined to kitchen and have got more involved in family decisions. In some families, females even become the bread-winners and play a crucial role in making decisions.

(6) Should parents award kids if they get some achievements? - Yes, it's beneficial to award children for their good conducts and achievements. Children will feel encouraged and then positive and enthusiastic to life. - I think oral praise is good for children but not material or financial awards. Parents should breathe into children the idea that they should be responsible for their conducts and don't expect award for their own duty.

(7) What are the elderly people's problems now? - I think the common problem of elderly people is that they're lonely. With the growing up of the children, many families become "empty nests." That means only old couples live together. They are financially sufficient but mentally lonely. Besides, there is little special entertainment for elderly people.

(8) What should the government do to improve the elderly people's life? I think the government should improve the welfare system to allow more elderly people to enter nursing houses or something like this. Thus they can get better care and companionship. The society should be friendlier to elderly people, such as putting aside seats particularly for the aged in buses and subways, setting up elderly dress counters in clothes stores and constructing sport facilities for the aged.

(9) Do you think it is good for young people to live with their grandparents? Yes, I think it is good to both. At first, the elderly grandparents can get better care at home. They will feel needed and respected with children and grandchildren surrounded. For young people who live with their grandparents, they can get helpful advice from their grandparents, which may help themselves make fewer mistakes in life. - Personally, I don't like living in an extended family with grandparents. Although every member can get more care from one another, there will be more conflicts. Anyway, it's difficult to find the common ground between the young and the elderly. I prefer to live separately but pay frequent visits to them.
