章节摘录

4 Go to bed early , get up early——this is wise. Some authorities say get up with the sun; some others say get up with one thing , some with another , But a lark is really the best thing to get up with. It gives you a splendid reputation with everybody to know that you get up with the lark; and if you get the right kind of lark , and work at him right , you can easily train him to get up at half past nine , every time——its no trick at all. 5 Now as to the matter of lying. You want to be very careful about lying; otherwise you are nearly sure to get caught. Once caught , you can never again be , in the eyes of the good and the pure , what you were before. Many a young person has injured himself permanently through a single clumsy and ill-finished lie , the result of carelessness born of incomplete training. Some authorities hold that the young ought not to lie at all. That of course , is putting it rather stronger than necessary; still while I cannot go quite so far as that , ! do maintain , and I believe I am right , that the young ought to be temperate in the use of this great art until practice and experience shall give them that confidence , elegance , and precision which alone can make the accomplishment graceful and profitable. Patience , diligence , painstaking attention to detail—these are requirements; these in time , will make the student perfect; upon these only , may hereafter be the sure foundation for future eminence.
