<<普通话焦点的语音实现和音系分析>>

内容概要

《中国社会科学院文库·文学语言研究系列：普通话焦点的语音实现和音系分析（英文版）》通过考察普通话不同类别和不同数量焦点的语音实现特征，揭示普通话重音的层级性差异和不对应性特征。

采用音系学理论（语调音系学和优选论），对普通话的重音类型进行描述，并对普通话焦点和重音的关系以及制约重音分布的底层原因等问题进行系统的阐述和解释。

书籍目录

Chapter One Introduction 1.1 Introduction 1.2 Literature review 1.2.1 Intonational phonology 1.2.2 Prosodic phonology 1.2.2.1 Syntax-phonology mapping 1.2.2.2 Prosodic domain 1.2.2.3 Properties of prosodic structure 1.2.3 Focus 1.2.3.1 Focus from three different angles 1.2.3.2 Focus in phonetic approach 1.2.3.3 Focus in phonological approach 1.3 Significance of the research 1.4 Basic concepts in this study 1.4.1 Definition of focus 1.4.2 Nuclear accent and pre-nuclear accent 1.4.3 Relative prominence 1.5 Outline of this research

Chapter Two Methodology 2.1 Background and claims 2.2 Design of acoustic experiment 2.2.1 Materials selection 2.2.2 Syntactic structure of target sentence 2.2.2.1 Unmarked structure 2.2.2.2 Lian...dou structure 2.2.2.3 Shi...de structure 2.2.3 Focus identification 2.2.3.1 Focus in unmarked structure 2.2.3.2 Focus condition in the Lian...dou structure 2.2.3.3 Focus condition in the Shi...de structure 2.3 Recording procedure 2.4 Data processing 2.4.1 Data annotation 2.4.2 Data extraction 2.5 Measurement of parameter 2.5.1 Measurement of F_0 2.5.2 Measurement of Duration 2.6 Perceptual experiment 2.6.1 Aim of the perceptual experiment 2.6.2 Stimuli selection 2.6.3 Procedure

Chapter Three Phonetic Realization of Accent Pattern in Unmarked Structure 3.1 Introduction 3.2 Phonetic realization of constituents in four information categories in unmarked structure 3.2.1 F_0 contour of tone 2 utterances in four information categories 3.2.1.1 Overall F_0 contour 3.2.1.2 Statistical analysis 3.2.2 F_0 contour of tone 4 utterances in four information categories 3.2.2.1 Overall F_0 contour 3.2.2.2 Statistical analysis 3.2.3 F_0 contour of tone 4 utterances in four information categories 3.2.3.1 Overall F_0 contour 3.2.3.2 Statistical analysis 3.2.4 Durational pattern of constituents in four information categories 3.2.4.1 Duration of subject constituents 3.2.4.2 Duration of object constituents 3.2.5 Summary 3.3 Phonetic realization of double rheme focuses 3.3.1 F_0 contour of tone 2 utterances in double rheme focuses 3.3.2 F_0 contour of tone 4 utterances in double rheme focuses 3.3.3 Duration pattern of words in double rheme focuses 3.3.3.1 Duration pattern of subject constituents 3.3.3.2 Duration pattern of object constituents 3.3.4 Summary 3.4 Phonetic realization of multiple rheme focuses 3.4.1 F_0 pattern of rheme focus on 'S+Ad+O' and 'S+V+O'; 3.4.2 F_0 patterns of rheme focus on 'Ad+V+O' and 'S+Ad+V'; 3.4.3 Summary 3.5 Accent and phrasing 3.5.1 Duration of pauses 3.5.2 Lengthening 3.5.3 Prosodic labeling 3.6 Discussion

Chapter Four Accent Pattern in 'Lian...dou' and 'Shi...de' Construction 4.1 Introduction 4.2 Co-existence and conflicts of syntax-marked focus and information induced focus in 'Lian+S+dou+V+O+Le' and 'Shi+S+V+O+De' construction 4.2.1 Phonetic realization of syntax-marked focus 4.2.1.1 Overall F_0 contour of syntax-marked focus 4.2.1.2 Durational lengthening of syntax-marked focus 4.2.1.3 Summary 4.2.2 Addition of the syntax-marked focus with the theme focus on the same constituent 4.2.2.1 Overall F_0 contour of additive focus 4.2.2.2 Durational lengthening induced by additive focus 4.2.2.3 Summary 4.2.3 Co-existence of two different kinds of focuses on different constituents 4.2.3.1 Overall F_0 contour of two different kinds of focuses 4.2.3.2 Durational lengthening of two different kinds of focuses 4.2.3.3 Summary 4.2.4 Interaction of addition of syntax-marked focus and rheme focus with rheme focus 4.2.4.1 Overall F_0 pattern 4.2.4.2 Duration pattern 4.2.4.3 Summary 4.2.5 Prosodic phrasing of the 'Lian+S+dou+V+O+Le' construction 4.2.5.1 Durational distribution of pauses 4.2.5.2 Lengthening 4.2.5.3 Prosodic boundary labeling 4.2.5.4 Summary 4.3 Co-existence and conflict of syntax-marked focus and induced focus in 'S+I~V+le' construction 4.3.1 F_0 contour of rhematic focus constituent after Lian-marked focus 4.3.2 F_0 contour of rhematic focus constituent before Lian-marked focus 4.3.3 F_0 contour of rhematic focus and addition of Lian-marked focus and rhematic focus in one sentence 4.3.4 Mean duration among the words in various focus condition 4.3.4.1 Duration pattern of subject constituents 4.3.4.2 Duration pattern of object constituents 4.3.5 Summary 4.4 Discussion

Chapter Five Phonological Representation of Accent Pattern in SC 5.1 Introduction 5.2 Phonological structure of intonation 5.2.1 The IPO theory of intonational structure 5.2.1.1 Basic assumption of IPO 5.2.1.2 Phonetic realization 5.2.2 Pierrehumbert's model of tonal structure 5.2.2.1 The original model 5.2.2.2 Pitch accents 5.2.2.3 Phrase accents 5.2.2.4 Boundary tones 5.2.2.5 Framework 5.2.2.6 Modification to the original framework 5.2.3 ToBI labeling system 5.2.3.1 Tier in ToBI 5.2.3.2 Accent inventory in ToBI 5.2.4 IViE labeling system 5.2.4.1 Tier in IViE 5.2.4.2 Accent inventory in IViE 5.2.5 Ladd's notation of tonal structure 5.2.5.1 Types of pitch accents 5.2.5.2

Post-nuclear accents5.2.6 Gussenhoven 's representation of tonalstructure5.2.6.1 Nuclear contour and boundary tones5.2.6.2 Pre-nuclear pitch accents5.2.6.3 Orets5.2.6.4 Expanding the tonal grammar5.3 Intonation structure of SC5.3.1 Autosegmental representation of tone5.3.2 Phonological pattern of intonation structure in SC5.3.2.1 Types of phonological events5.3.2.2 Phonological pattern of accents5.3.3 Hierarchical structure of accents5.3.4 Underlying causes for restricting the distribution of accents5.3.4.1 Focus without accents5.3.4.2 Accents without focus5.3.4.3 A metrical account of accent distribution5.4 DiscussionChapter Six OTAnalysis of Tonal Structure6.1 Introduction6.2 Grammatical model of OT6.3 Constraints in the analysis6.3.1 Markedness constraints6.3.2 Faithfulness constraints6.3.3 Association constraints6.3.4 Alignment constraints6.4 OT analysis of accent pattern6.4.1 Generation of H* tone6.4.2 Generation of L* tone6.4.3 Generation of LH* tone6.4.4 Generation of H*L tone6.5 OT analysis of accent distribution6.5.1 Accent on subject position6.5.2 Accent on object position6.5.3 Accents on subject and object position6.6 OT analysis of prosodic phrasing6.7 Discussion Chapter Seven Concluding Remarks7.1 Major findings7.2 The cross-linguistic perspective7.3 Suggestions for future researchBibliographyAppendix Sample Sentences
