章节摘录

Week two in intensive care looked as if a funeral would come before the week was over. Michael kept nagging about singing to his sister , but kids are never allowed in Intensive Care. Karen made up her mind , though. She would take Michael whether they liked it or not !

If he didn't see his sister right then , he may never see her alive. She dressed him in an oversize scrub suit and marched him into ICU. He looked like a walking laundry basket. But the head nurse recognized him as a child and bellowed , "Get that kid out of here now !

No children are allowed." The mother rose up strong in Karen , and the usually mild_mannered lady glared right into the head nurse's face. She said , "He is not leaving until he sings to his sister !

" Karen towed Michael to his sister's bedside. He gazed at the tiny infant losing the battle to live. After a moment , he began to sing. In the pure-hearted voice of a 3-year-old , Michael sang : "You are my sunshine , my only sunshine , you make me happy when skies are gray..." Instantly the baby girl seemed to respond. The 32) pulse rate began to calm down and become steady. "Keep on singing , Michael , " Karen encouraged him with tears in her eyes. "You never know , dear , how much I love you , please don't take my sunshine away..." As Michael sang to his sister , the baby's 33) strained breathing became as smooth as a kitten's purr. "Keep on singing , sweetheart !

" "The other night , dear , as I lay sleeping , I dreamed I held you in my arms..." Michael's little sister began to relax as rest. "Keep on singing , Michael." Tears had now conquered the face of the bossy head nurse. Karen 38) glowed. "You are my'sunshine , my only sunshine. Please don't , take my sunshine away..."
