章节摘录

A tortoise is running on the grass. A hare comes up to him and says, "What are you doing?"

"I am running," the tortoise answers. "You can run?"

"You can't run. You can only walk," the hare says to the tortoise. "I can run faster than you. Let's have a race." The tortoise says to the hare. "OK!"

"Let's run to the tall tree over there. Let's see who can get there first," the hare answers. The tortoise and the hare begin to run. After a while the hare runs to a small tree. He wants to have a sleep. He thinks the tortoise is too slow. He can't get to the tall tree first. Soon the hare sleeps. The tortoise goes on. He doesn't stop. When the hare wakes up, the tortoise is sitting under the tall tree. The tortoise is the first. The hare has nothing to say.
