章节摘录

Confucius then had many disciples who were already in the government of Wei, and the ruler of Wei wanted to secure the services of Confucius. Tselu asked, "If the ruler of Wei should put you in power, how would you begin ?" "I would begin with establishing a correct usage of terminology" ( of ranks and titles ) , Confucius answered. "Do you really mean it ?

" asked Tselu. "How odd and impractical you are !

What do you want to establish a correct terminology for ?

Ah Yu, you are simple-minded indeed !

" Confucius replied. "If the terminology is not correct, then the whole style of one's speech falls out of form; if one's speech is not in form, then orders cannot be carried out; if orders are not carried out, then the proper forms of worship and social intercourse ( in ritual and music ) cannot be restored; if the proper forms of worship and social intercourse are not restored, then legal justice in the country will fail; when legal justice fails, then the people are at a loss to know what to do or what not to do. When a gentleman institutes something, he is sure by what terminology it should be called, and when he gives an order, he knows that the order can be carried out without question. A gentleman never uses his terminology indiscriminately." The following year ( 484 B.C. ) Jan Ch'iu, who was then assisting in the administration of the government of Lu, led the army of Baron Kang Chi against Ch'i and defeated the latter at the battle of Lang. And Baron Kang asked Jan Chiu, "How did you come to know the science of warfare ?

Did you learn it by study or by nature ?

" Jan Ch'iu replied, "I learned it from Confucius." "What kind of a person is Confucius ?

" asked Baron K'ang. And Jan Ch'iu replied, "If you should put him in power, his reputation would spread immediately. You could apply his teachings to the people and lay them before
