前言

Dear Student , Thank you for choosing to study for the IELTS with New Oriental. This book is the long anticipated result of a close cooperation between New Oriental and international IELTS experts to develop our own IELTS training materials. We believe it offers a different approach , with the following features : First of all , the language used is likely what you will encounter in a real classroom or work setting while living abroad. The setting of each dialogue is also consistent with how you might encounter English as used by native speakers in their own country. Also, under the guidance of renowned professor Rod Ellis , our partner international research team has delivered a proven methodology for ensuring the intended acquisition of needed skills for IELTS test takers in speaking , listening, reading and writing. And most importantly, this book incorporates ten years of IELTS training experience by the very best teachers at New Oriental , and therefore has been customized to suit the needs of Chinese students. I sincerely hope that together with these materials New Oriental teachers can make your IELTS classroom fruitful and rewarding. Enjoy your learning time with New Oriental !

章节摘录

On weekdays , and sometimes on the weekend , I go to the university in the city from my house in Ranui , which is in a gestern suburb.It&rsquo;S quite far,about 30 kilometres , and it takes an houg but I don&rsquo;t mind thejourney because I do all the reading for my university on the train. Every morning I get up at 6 o&rsquo;clock.I have to get up this early to get to university on time , if I go bytrain.So I get up at 6 0&rsquo;clock and I have to leave the house by ten to seven to get the 7.15 train.It onlytakes about 1 5 minutes to walk to the train station , but I leave myself plenty of time because the trainsare never on time~Often they&rsquo;re late , but sometimes they are early !

A couple of times last year they nevercame and I had to wait over an hour !

The trains are quite old SO they often break down. This is another reason why I need to get to the station earlV in case I have to get a bus.If the trainbreaks down , you see , the train company is supposed to send buses for the commuters , but when thishappens it takes much longer to get to the city because of the delay and because the bus stops many timesalong the way.So that&rsquo;S why I have to leave early !

If there is a breakdown , I usually get to university latefor my lecture.even if I leave home early.It&rsquo;S rather frustrating !

But I do prefer taking the train because you can read or write on board , even use a laptop !

Buses , onthe other hand , are very uncomfortable.They make you roll about as they move and when they stop , you have to stop writing or else you make a big mess on your paper !

The last time I took a bus I gave uptrying to write after ten minutes !

I have been thinking about tiding a bicycle to the city recently ItS a verylong journey though , but it would be good for exercise !

There is a bike lane along the motorway now,SOit is much safer than it used to be and 1 wouldnt have to leave home any earlier in the morning than I donow,since cycling is quite fast. I think 1 will end up cycling to university&hellip;maybe aider my exams.It would be a much nicer journey Ithink.
