章节摘录

Unit 8 Eves of Kindness 善意的眼神 It was a bitter cold evening in northern Virginia many years ago. The old mans beard was glazed by winters frost while he waited for a ride across the river. The wait seemed body became numb and stiff from the frigid4 north wind. He heard the faint, steady rhythm of approaching hooves racing along the frozen path. Anxiously, he watched as several horsemen without an effort to get his attention. Then another passed by, rounded the bend. He let the first one pass by and then another. Finally, the last rider neared the spot where the old man sat like a snow statue. As this one drew near, the old man caught the riders eye and said, "Sir, would you mind giving an old man a ride to the other side? There doesn't appear to be a passageway7 by foot." Reining8 his horse, the rider replied, "Sure thing. Hop9 aboard." Seeing the old man was unable to lift his half-frozen body from the ground, the horseman dismounted and helped the old man onto the horse. The horseman took the old man not just across the river, destination, which was just a few miles away. As they neared the tinyn but cozy12 cottage, the but to his horsemans curiosity caused him to inquire, "Sir, I notice that you let several other riders pass by without making an effort to secure1: a ride. Then I came up and you immediately asked me for a ride. Im curious why, on such a bitter winter night, you would wait and ask the last rider. What if I had refused and left you there?" The old man lowered himself slowly down from the horse, looked the rider straight in the eyes, and replied, "Ive been around here for some time. I reckon14 I know people pretty good." The old-timera continued, into the eyes of the other riders and immediately saw there was no concern for my situation. It would have been useless to have asked them for a ride. But when I looked into your eyes, kindness and compassion were evident. I knew, then and there, that your gentle spirit would welcome the opportunity to give me assistance in Those heartwarming comments touched the horseman who told the old man. my time of need." never get too busy in my own affairs that I fail to respond to the needs of others with kindness and compassion." With that, Thomas Jefferson, the President of the United States, turned his horse around and made his way back to the White House.

不要按别人的标准设定目标 只有你自己才明白什么最合适。 不要对内心深处的东西浑不在意, 对它们要像性命一样重要,没有它们生活就没有意义。 不要摒弃梦想 没有梦想就没有希望 没有希望就没有目标。 生活中不要跑得太快,结果忘记跑到了哪里,要到哪里去。 生活不是一场赛跑,而是一次该时时驻足张望观赏的旅行。
