章节摘录

I want to make school clean. You may think it is very simple. But I don't think so. Our teacher said, "School is your home, you should keep it clean." But I have never done anything to make school clean. For example, I have never told my classmate to pick up rubbish after he threw it on the ground. I also threw the rubbish on the ground. So I want to make school clean so that everyone can forgive me. During this summer holiday, I will go to school to make school clean. Of course, I will do it with my classmates. We will make school clean every weekends next term as well. Now, do you think it is simple?

Though there are evil and cruelty in the world, you can always have the chance to find love and get it. For example, you can get love from your parents, your girl/boy friend, and your teachers and so on. In my opinion, love from my parents is the greatest and the most precious one. For many years, they have been supporting me both financially and mentally. I am moved greatly by their care and affection and I appreciate a lot for what they have done for me.
